RWANDA

Capital city: Kigali
Main languages: French, Kinyarwanda
Main religions: Christian, native beliefs

Did you know?

The sun on Rwanda's flag represents unity.
The top blue band represents peace and happiness.
The middle yellow band represents economic development.
The bottom green band represents hope of prosperity and wealth.

About 90% of Rwanda's population is involved in agriculture. The country exports coffee & tea.

For over 40 years Rwanda and neighboring Burundi were one country called Ruanda-Urundi.

Rwanda is known as the country of a thousand hills. Five volcanoes can be found in these hills.

Rwanda is the most densely populated country in Africa - meaning there are more people living in Rwanda's space than in other African countries.

Pray for Rwanda

Pray for Free Methodist work in Rwanda. Also pray as the chaplains at Kibogora Hospital share Jesus' love with patients.

Kibogora Hospital helps many people to not only find physical healing, but also to find Jesus. In spite of the difficulties that war has created for the Rwandan people, the Free Methodist Church is growing.
