

Capital city: Juba
 Main languages: English, Arabic, and others
 Religions: Christian, Animist

Did you know?

R South Sudan's
O official name is the
S Republic of South
S Sudan - or ROSS.

South Sudan is one of the world's newest countries. In 2011 South Sudan declared itself an independent nation from Sudan.

July 9 is celebrated as the National Day of South Sudan.

The White Nile River flows through South Sudan and creates a giant swamp called the Sudd.

Nimule National Park is home to hippos, Ugandan kobs (a small antelope), buffalos and elephants.

South Sudan is home to many animals including elephants, lions, monkeys, chimpanzees and giraffes.

TO DO:

Unscramble the words below.
 Put a star * by the words related to South Sudan.
 Put a plus sign + by the action words that please God.

- reac _____
- sEgnhil _____
- vgie _____
- iaonnt _____
- hersa _____
- pleehnta _____

Answer (hold up to a mirror): +csie' *Eudqiaq' +dive' *usfriu' +qysie' *elqehysur

P Pray for unity for this nation and growth among the churches.

South Sudan

r The Free Methodist ministry in South Sudan is part of the Mid-America Conference. In addition to nearly 20 churches, the work includes a hospital and a community center/school.

a y
f o r