

Nine Strategies for the FMC-USA Suggested Action Steps

STRATEGY 8: Honor Fruitfulness

Pray

Pray believers and churches will remain in Jesus, the vine, so they are able to bear fruit. Pray Christians will have increased spiritual vitality that will bring renewal to those world areas where the culture has become post-Christian. Pray effective methods are found and used to reach many for God's kingdom, especially in those countries most resistant to the gospel.

Grow

Read Necessary Endings: The Employees, Businesses, and Relationships that All of Us Have to Give Up in Order to Move Forward, by Henry Cloud to learn how to evaluate, implement change and produce more fruit.

Share stories of kingdom fruitfulness with your congregation. Stories can be found in missionary newsletters, bulletin inserts that are part of the missions resource materials, and the FM missions magazine, as well as on the FMWM website home page.

Give

Support the work of international leaders, churches and ministries through Country Support Accounts:

- To empower existing and emerging leaders through training and spiritual support,
- Establish vital and life-giving churches for new and existing believers, and
- Fuel transformational ministries to expand education, alleviate poverty, fight for justice and bring peace.

Go to give.fmcusa.org to select a specific country or world area.

As you hear or read missionary stories of kingdom fruitfulness, write a personal note to the missionary, rejoicing with them in what God has done.

Nine Strategies for the FMC-USA Suggested Action Steps

STRATEGY 8: Honor Fruitfulness

Pray

Pray believers and churches will remain in Jesus, the vine, so they are able to bear fruit. Pray Christians will have increased spiritual vitality that will bring renewal to those world areas where the culture has become post-Christian. Pray effective methods are found and used to reach many for God's kingdom, especially in those countries most resistant to the gospel.

Grow

Read Necessary Endings: The Employees, Businesses, and Relationships that All of Us Have to Give Up in Order to Move Forward, by Henry Cloud to learn how to evaluate, implement change and produce more fruit.

Share stories of kingdom fruitfulness with your congregation. Stories can be found in missionary newsletters, bulletin inserts that are part of the missions resource materials, and the FM missions magazine, as well as on the FMWM website home page.

Give

Support the work of international leaders, churches and ministries through Country Support Accounts:

- To empower existing and emerging leaders through training and spiritual support,
- Establish vital and life-giving churches for new and existing believers, and
- Fuel transformational ministries to expand education, alleviate poverty, fight for justice and bring peace.

Go to give.fmcusa.org to select a specific country or world area.

As you hear or read missionary stories of kingdom fruitfulness, write a personal note to the missionary, rejoicing with them in what God has done.