

scattered

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

Captivated by Love

by Don and Kathy Williams, Thailand

Bolat began his testimony by revealing he had been a drunkard for a number of years. His wife had often told him he drank too much. Then one day Bolat sensed God asking him, "What are you doing?" Bolat recognized the voice as the true God, and within six months he no longer drank.

Since coming to the Lord, Bolat has started a ministry to children whose parents are addicted to drugs and alcohol. In his testimony, he shared that he doesn't want to see young children grow up caught in the same downward spiral as their parents and he had experienced. Bolat wants to help these children whom many in the world see as "throw-aways," "soulless" children – treating them like worn out shoes.

Bolat plants rice to help feed the children. The local school assists by giving THB600 ($18 US) a month for the children he is trying to assist. Parents offer to pitch in but do not follow through. He does the best he can with the resources available to him.

Bolat ended his testimony by sharing his desire for God to develop him as a leader. He is teaching the children about the Bible even though he has never attended Bible school. He is burdened for the many people in Thailand who do not know God.

Bolat's heart has been captivated by what the Lord has done for him. Without realizing it he is engaging in transformational ministry by expanding education, alleviating poverty, fighting for justice and bringing wholeness – all priorities of global Free Methodist ministry.

scattered

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

Captivated by Love

by Don and Kathy Williams, Thailand

Bolat began his testimony by revealing he had been a drunkard for a number of years. His wife had often told him he drank too much. Then one day Bolat sensed God asking him, "What are you doing?" Bolat recognized the voice as the true God, and within six months he no longer drank.

Since coming to the Lord, Bolat has started a ministry to children whose parents are addicted to drugs and alcohol. In his testimony, he shared that he doesn't want to see young children grow up caught in the same downward spiral as their parents and he had experienced. Bolat wants to help these children whom many in the world see as "throw-aways," "soulless" children – treating them like worn out shoes.

Bolat plants rice to help feed the children. The local school assists by giving THB600 ($18 US) a month for the children he is trying to assist. Parents offer to pitch in but do not follow through. He does the best he can with the resources available to him.

Bolat ended his testimony by sharing his desire for God to develop him as a leader. He is teaching the children about the Bible even though he has never attended Bible school. He is burdened for the many people in Thailand who do not know God.

Bolat's heart has been captivated by what the Lord has done for him. Without realizing it he is engaging in transformational ministry by expanding education, alleviating poverty, fighting for justice and bringing wholeness – all priorities of global Free Methodist ministry.