

scattered

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

Crossing the Bridge

by Worker in Creative Access Area

The picture below was drawn by Tahad,* a Yazidi boy who was rescued from a mountain top in northwest Iraq. He and up to 50,000 others had been trapped there by ISIS, without food or water, in 2014. As Tahad describes it, the drawing depicts a very different journey in his life.

Tahad used to live in a Yazidi village, symbolized by the trees. But one day he met Jesus, and his life changed. He crossed the bridge to a new life in Him, symbolized by the cross near the bridge. Tahad is now "in the family!"

A young man and his wife, now part of the Impact Middle East team, are devoting themselves to serve Yazidi refugees like Tahad. The man has discovered nearly 70,000 living in five or six villages in northern Iraq where he has been distributing relief supplies and copies of "The Word." He has started six group home meetings; Tahad attends one of them.

The Yazidi people are oppressed and persecuted, rejected by many, but not rejected by Christ. Free Methodists are reaching out to the Yazidi. How many more Yazidi will cross the bridge to new life, joining "the family"?

*fictitious name

scattered

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

Crossing the Bridge

by Worker in Creative Access Area

The picture below was drawn by Tahad,* a Yazidi boy who was rescued from a mountain top in northwest Iraq. He and up to 50,000 others had been trapped there by ISIS, without food or water, in 2014. As Tahad describes it, the drawing depicts a very different journey in his life.

Tahad used to live in a Yazidi village, symbolized by the trees. But one day he met Jesus, and his life changed. He crossed the bridge to a new life in Him, symbolized by the cross near the bridge. Tahad is now "in the family!"

A young man and his wife, now part of the Impact Middle East team, are devoting themselves to serve Yazidi refugees like Tahad. The man has discovered nearly 70,000 living in five or six villages in northern Iraq where he has been distributing relief supplies and copies of "The Word." He has started six group home meetings; Tahad attends one of them.

The Yazidi people are oppressed and persecuted, rejected by many, but not rejected by Christ. Free Methodists are reaching out to the Yazidi. How many more Yazidi will cross the bridge to new life, joining "the family"?

*fictitious name

