

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

Giving Thanks

by Don and Amy Rogers, Empowering Lives International, Africa

As we view the charts and graphs showing numbers and lines – the statistics related to Empowering Lives International (ELI) – the reality of what those numbers represent is inspiring and worth our deepest effort and sacrifice. Those numbers represent lives that were hanging in the balance, lives that have experienced the power of transformation and empowerment.

Charles' appreciation was like none I had ever heard. He had come to the Empowering Lives International Training Center to thank us because of the transformation that had taken place in his father's life. When Charles was younger his father was an alcoholic with no vision beyond getting his daily drink and beating anyone within reach when he got home. Everything is different now. Charles is in college and came to tell me and our ELI staff that, "If it had not been for the few weeks of training and care my father received here eight years ago – I would not be in college today! That training changed his life and the future of our family. My father started going to church and praying for us. He began working hard on our simple farm, which was previously barren, so my brother and I could go to school. I'm heading back to college tomorrow, but when I woke up this morning, I was determined not to sleep until I found the people of ELI and expressed my deepest thanks for all you do to see people like my father change – which, in turn, changed my life as well."

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

Giving Thanks

by Don and Amy Rogers, Empowering Lives International, Africa

As we view the charts and graphs showing numbers and lines – the statistics related to Empowering Lives International (ELI) – the reality of what those numbers represent is inspiring and worth our deepest effort and sacrifice. Those numbers represent lives that were hanging in the balance, lives that have experienced the power of transformation and empowerment.

Charles' appreciation was like none I had ever heard. He had come to the Empowering Lives International Training Center to thank us because of the transformation that had taken place in his father's life. When Charles was younger his father was an alcoholic with no vision beyond getting his daily drink and beating anyone within reach when he got home. Everything is different now. Charles is in college and came to tell me and our ELI staff that, "If it had not been for the few weeks of training and care my father received here eight years ago – I would not be in college today! That training changed his life and the future of our family. My father started going to church and praying for us. He began working hard on our simple farm, which was previously barren, so my brother and I could go to school. I'm heading back to college tomorrow, but when I woke up this morning, I was determined not to sleep until I found the people of ELI and expressed my deepest thanks for all you do to see people like my father change – which, in turn, changed my life as well."