

LIBERIA

Capital city: Monrovia
 Main languages: English, ethnic languages
 Main religions: traditional religions, Christian, Muslim

Liberia is located on the Atlantic Ocean.

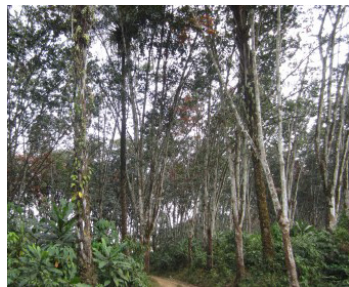

Did you know?

Liberia's flag, with 11 stripes alternating red and white, has a white 5-pointed star on a blue square. It was based on the U.S. flag.

Rubber processing is an important industry in Liberia. Rubber is used to make many products including toys, boots, shoes and tires. The rubber tree can grow as tall as 81 feet.

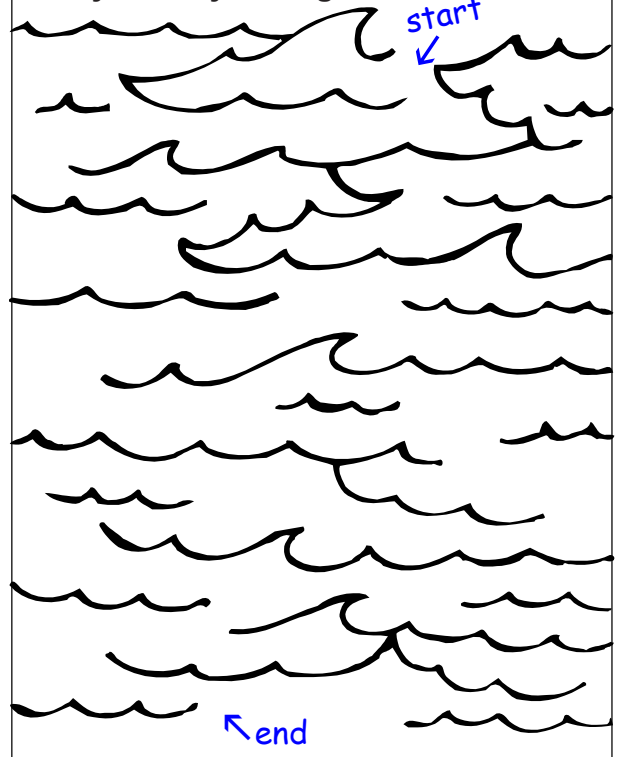

TO DO:

The capital of Liberia – Monrovia – was named after U.S. president James Monroe.

Find your way through the ocean maze.

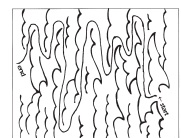

Pray for those learning to be pastors and church leaders.

Liberia

The Free Methodist work in Liberia began in 1998 with a church plant in Monrovia, the capital city.

Answer: