Capital city: Abuja
Main language: English
Main religion: Muslim, Christian

Did you know?

Students in Nigeria help with cleaning the classroom and cutting the grass.

In Nigeria you might wish to carry an umbrella from March to October when it usually rains nearly every day.

At other times, you might wear a hat or scarf to keep you cool in the hot sun.

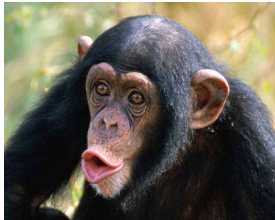

Flying over the desert you might notice Nigeria's ground looks red. Bits of iron in the ground make it look rusty red.

Nigeria is Africa's most populated country. There are more than 250 different ethnic groups living in Nigeria.

TO DO:

Nigeria's land includes rainforest, grassy areas and desert. Rainforest animals include gorillas, chimpanzees (like the one pictured), baboon and monkeys.

Solve the math equations.

Then use the code to learn what God's Word says in Mark 16:15.

$3 + 3$

$10 - 1$

$4 + 4$

$2 + 0$

$4 + 1$

$5 - 2$

$6 + 5$

$3 - 1$

$4 + 0$

$9 - 2$

$4 - 3$

$6 + 2$

$7 + 3$

Answer (hold up to a mirror): good news to all creation.

Pray children attending International Child Care Ministries schools will be good examples of God's love for others.

Nigeria

A group of pastors in Nigeria liked the name "Free Methodist Church," so they called themselves the "Christ Free Methodist Church of Nigeria." They officially joined with the Free Methodist church in 1988.
