

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

Sweet Determination

By Darin and Jill Land, Philippines

“Sweet determination” is a phrase that comes to mind when one thinks of Mamre Buelis. She has a calm demeanor, a ready smile, and a willingness to help others with anything they might ask her to do. But underneath this delightful exterior is a will of iron, a determination to accomplish her goals to the best of her ability. She works quickly and accurately at most tasks, while staying laser-focused on her long-term objectives.

Mamre is the daughter of a Free Methodist pastor from Mindanao, Philippines. She graduated from our Light and Life Bible College in Butuan. In fact, she did such a good job at the Bible college that the college president encouraged her to further her schooling with the hope that she would eventually return to the college as a faculty member. Thanks to a Free Methodist “fraternal” scholarship at Asia-Pacific Nazarene Theological Seminary (APNTS), Mamre has been able to pursue a master’s degree at an accredited institution — something she and her family would never have been able to afford without assistance.

Currently Mamre is nearing the end of her master’s studies, having completed most, if not all, of her coursework with only her thesis remaining. Her focus is religious education (more commonly called Christian education in the U.S.), with an emphasis on curriculum development. She is completing her thesis proposal, with her target graduation date in 2016.

While maintaining top grades at APNTS, Mamre has also assisted in the children’s ministry at her local church, Kamuning Free Methodist Church. The children respond well to her nurturing attention and her well-designed lessons.

Having received so much from the previous generation of Free Methodist leaders, Mamre is passionate about passing it on to the next generation.

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

Sweet Determination

By Darin and Jill Land, Philippines

“Sweet determination” is a phrase that comes to mind when one thinks of Mamre Buelis. She has a calm demeanor, a ready smile, and a willingness to help others with anything they might ask her to do. But underneath this delightful exterior is a will of iron, a determination to accomplish her goals to the best of her ability. She works quickly and accurately at most tasks, while staying laser-focused on her long-term objectives.

Mamre is the daughter of a Free Methodist pastor from Mindanao, Philippines. She graduated from our Light and Life Bible College in Butuan. In fact, she did such a good job at the Bible college that the college president encouraged her to further her schooling with the hope that she would eventually return to the college as a faculty member. Thanks to a Free Methodist “fraternal” scholarship at Asia-Pacific Nazarene Theological Seminary (APNTS), Mamre has been able to pursue a master’s degree at an accredited institution — something she and her family would never have been able to afford without assistance.

Currently Mamre is nearing the end of her master’s studies, having completed most, if not all, of her coursework with only her thesis remaining. Her focus is religious education (more commonly called Christian education in the U.S.), with an emphasis on curriculum development. She is completing her thesis proposal, with her target graduation date in 2016.

While maintaining top grades at APNTS, Mamre has also assisted in the children’s ministry at her local church, Kamuning Free Methodist Church. The children respond well to her nurturing attention and her well-designed lessons.

Having received so much from the previous generation of Free Methodist leaders, Mamre is passionate about passing it on to the next generation.