

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

The Right Way

By Cindi Angelo, Portugal

Bruna Raquel is a lovely young convert who gave her heart to Jesus at our church. A student at the university, she, like many young people, has dreams – one of which is to be a journalist.

She and her family came to church at the invitation of a friend who had become a believer at our church two years ago. Brunna says that on that first Sunday she sensed the presence of the Holy Spirit as never before. She remembers: "From that day on I knew I had to start doing things in the right way." She was baptized with 11 other people September 2015, and the joy on her face was simply contagious. She is thankful she can count on her brothers and sisters in Christ who are part of her cell group and at the church where she always feels welcomed and loved.

One day she hopes to marry and have her own family, and she already has a desire to be involved with the church's children's ministry. Brunna says, "I want to push myself to learn more from God's Word in order to understand the vision of the church and be an active member."

Please pray for this baby in the faith and for other young people, like her, who need a personal encounter with Jesus.

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Acts 8:4

The Right Way

By Cindi Angelo, Portugal

Bruna Raquel is a lovely young convert who gave her heart to Jesus at our church. A student at the university, she, like many young people, has dreams – one of which is to be a journalist.

She and her family came to church at the invitation of a friend who had become a believer at our church two years ago. Brunna says that on that first Sunday she sensed the presence of the Holy Spirit as never before. She remembers: "From that day on I knew I had to start doing things in the right way." She was baptized with 11 other people September 2015, and the joy on her face was simply contagious. She is thankful she can count on her brothers and sisters in Christ who are part of her cell group and at the church where she always feels welcomed and loved.

One day she hopes to marry and have her own family, and she already has a desire to be involved with the church's children's ministry. Brunna says, "I want to push myself to learn more from God's Word in order to understand the vision of the church and be an active member."

Please pray for this baby in the faith and for other young people, like her, who need a personal encounter with Jesus.