Fresh Water to a Dry Soul

by Pastor Dale, Middle East

One day Osama felt chest pains. He thought he was going to die. While his brother was taking him to the doctor, Osama asked his brother to look after his family, especially his young children. After being examined, the doctor told Osama he was perfectly fine. The same thing happened to him a second time.

Osama decided to start searching for God in a more serious way. “Having been invited to a house church meeting,” Osama says, “I attended the meeting hoping to find answers to my questions.” The Bible study that day was about God’s purpose for creating man. Osama felt God had sent him to that particular meeting to find what he had been searching for.

“Then I started to attend the meetings regularly. I read, pray and study my Bible daily. The Word of God is like fresh water to my dry soul. Now I live with no fear in my heart; God is in control. And I have fellowship with other believers.”

Osama is 34 years old, married with two children, ages 4 and 1. He lives in Zebadiah, West Bank.
