

together | everywhere

Together with all those everywhere who
call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ
1 Corinthians 1:2

From Despair to Hope

by Thom and Sherry Cahill, Kenya

Raised in a single parent home, Evans spent part of his life grappling in darkness. Evans lived in a slum. Confronted with all the challenges of living there and seeking a way to fit into the crowd, he started drinking and attending parties. But Evans found this lifestyle did not give him peace. Not really understanding what he was searching for, one day Evans came upon a church where ex-drug addicts were singing praises to God. Although this seemed strange, Evans' searching heart was drawn to the worship. Evans battled back and forth with the Christian faith for some time. He recalls, "I didn't know where to find Jesus, but in the midst of everything, He found me."

Evans attended a seminar for Sunday school teachers at the Free Methodist Church in Eldoret, Kenya. At the end of the service, an invitation to accept Jesus was given. Evans remembers, "All I could think was that I didn't know what I was doing, but I knew this was what I had been looking for my whole life." He invited Christ into his life, and "tears rolled down my cheeks – tears of joy!"

"I had no hope – now I am delivered from despair as a result of spiritual birth, hence a turnaround in my life." He resounded, "Thanks be to God Almighty!"

together | everywhere

Together with all those everywhere who
call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ
1 Corinthians 1:2

From Despair to Hope

by Thom and Sherry Cahill, Kenya

Raised in a single parent home, Evans spent part of his life grappling in darkness. Evans lived in a slum. Confronted with all the challenges of living there and seeking a way to fit into the crowd, he started drinking and attending parties. But Evans found this lifestyle did not give him peace. Not really understanding what he was searching for, one day Evans came upon a church where ex-drug addicts were singing praises to God. Although this seemed strange, Evans' searching heart was drawn to the worship. Evans battled back and forth with the Christian faith for some time. He recalls, "I didn't know where to find Jesus, but in the midst of everything, He found me."

Evans attended a seminar for Sunday school teachers at the Free Methodist Church in Eldoret, Kenya. At the end of the service, an invitation to accept Jesus was given. Evans remembers, "All I could think was that I didn't know what I was doing, but I knew this was what I had been looking for my whole life." He invited Christ into his life, and "tears rolled down my cheeks – tears of joy!"

"I had no hope – now I am delivered from despair as a result of spiritual birth, hence a turnaround in my life." He resounded, "Thanks be to God Almighty!"