

The Voice of God Calling

by Art Brown, Pastor to Africa Missionaries

Worshipping the devil was a daily part of his life – a prominent voodoo witch doctor. Three of his five children had died, and he was convinced it was because of the devil. He invited seven bad spirits into his body, built a three-room home for them, and became very wealthy. He believed the evil spirits helped him find valuable rings. Other people wanted to kill him so that they could take his place.

Then God spoke to him in a dream. He was hanging upside down, two groups trying to pull him in opposite directions.

He became so sick he cried out, “Jesus, help me.” Paralyzed and unable to eat, his family took him to another witch doctor’s house. Again he cried out to Jesus, “Heal me, and I will give myself to you tomorrow.” He was so ill even the witch doctor told his mother she should take him to the pastor, saying, “Sometimes Jesus can help.”

This was the beginning of his freedom and new life in Christ. The pastor prayed, and Jesus came into the former witch doctor’s life. His sins were forgiven. He could again move; he could walk. Everyone was amazed. It was if the dead had been raised. Soon he became a leader in the church, especially leading the prayer ministry. He was a Sunday school teacher and led several groups. He says he now knows it was the voice of God calling him.
