

CELEBRATING PARTNERS IN FREEDOM

We are grateful for all of our staff, teams, volunteers, board members, and supporters all around the world who helped make 2018 our best year yet. From India to Illinois, Manila to Michigan, these were a few of the people who partnered with the Set Free Movement to reduce vulnerability to human trafficking in their communities

Learn more about the major milestones we reached in 2018 here.

Everybody has a place in this movement. God has given each person unique gifts, skills, and resources they can use in the direction of freedom.

Find out how you can join the modern-day abolitionist movement here.