

Hong Kong is a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China
 Main languages: Cantonese, English
 Main religion: local religions

Did you know?

1/2 Hong Kong is a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China. Hong Kong enjoys independence in most areas of governing for the next 50 years.

Trade with British merchants began around 1699.

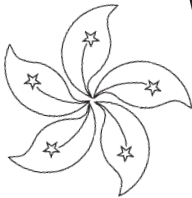

The endangered pink dolphin lives only in the waters around Hong Kong.

Oranges or other fruits are served to indicate the end of a meal.

English is one of the official languages of Hong Kong. It's spoken by more than one-third of the people.

The emblem on Hong Kong's flag shows the lotus blossom.

TO DO:

The words below are spelled backwards. Write them out correctly. Put a star by the words related to Hong Kong. Put a plus sign by the action words that please God.

Pray for the outreach efforts of the Hong Kong FMC. Their ministries impact people in Cambodia, as well as people from other countries that have come to Hong Kong.

Hong Kong

Government approved centers for the elderly and for youth provide Free Methodist churches an opportunity to serve people and to tell about Jesus.

- yoj _____
- tiurf _____
- evres _____
- nihplod _____
- sutol _____
- edart _____
- evol _____

Answer (hold up to a mirror): +lovr *tjrqe' +love *torra' *tiurf' +sevr *qolpjuir'