

Dear Friends, greetings from Portugal. First, we want you to know that we have been praying together with our people here in Portugal for the difficult times you are facing in the US and in England. We cry out for the Prince of Peace to bring peace to the nations.

COVID-19 cases have been growing in Portugal again. The government relaxed the confinement rules, and now Lisbon has seen more outbreaks.

OUR GREATEST JOY:

We have news! We started face-to-face services on Pentecost Sunday, and we had a full house, within the security rules, in both Lisbon and its suburb of Corroios. We are allowed 30% of the capacity of the site, and unfortunately, children and the elderly still must watch online from their homes.

Our young people are serenading their homes every week to cheer them up.

We look forward to bringing in new members in a few days and a baptism service at the beach.

I, Cindi, released my new book, It Became Similar to Men, on May 31.

We have finished the renovation on the first floor of our larger facility in Corroios, which will be both functional and beautiful. We are grateful to the Wilmore, Kentucky, FMC for donating the necessary resources for the renovations of both buildings.

OUR BIGGEST CHALLENGES:

Due to the difficulties of these times, some of our partners have been unable to continue supporting us financially which makes it urgent for us to raise about 40 % of our budget for 2020. Would you pray about this and also share our need with your friends or your church?

PRAY WITH US FOR:

* the FMC family in Portugal and for the mission work we support in Guinea Bissau and São Tomé and Príncipe. We were supposed to have pastoral ordination in late July, including the Souzas who serve in Sao Tome, but their flights have been canceled and we are waiting on God's direction for this.

* the new converts that their walk with Christ will deepen and begin to bear fruit.

our cell leaders who are taking care of their groups through social media.

* Pastores Santiago and Laysse Magalhães who pastor the Lisbon FMC and Pra. Cidá Matos, a missionary here for almost 20 years, who mentors the cell leaders and disciples two groups as well.

* Hugo and Carla Conceição who will be ordained in July.
