

THE OWSLEY CHRONICLES

Special MOUNT EVEREST EDITION

On this day (May 29, 1953), Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay were the first climbers to successfully reach the top of Mount Everest.

Tomorrow, Saturday, May 30th, all Latin American Free Methodist missionaries will be participating in an Everest Climb of our own. We will be "climbing" a total of 24,000 feet in order to help raise $24,000 to buy food for those in need. This is almost an insurmountable task since we are all in some version of quarantine.

But we have stairs and hills and inclines that we can use to simulate it. Our ultimate goal is to provide food and essential medicine for our Latin American pastors and to support the ministries that they have to serve the needy in their communities. They are literally on the front-lines of this global pandemic.

Will you join our climb to the Summit? Click the button below to see our promotional video, make a pledge or go ahead and make a donation. Knowing you are behind us will help us climb and it will provide even more encouragement to our pastors. 100% of the proceeds will be used to support them. Thank you for helping!
