

Meet Your Free Methodist Missionaries

Chris & Yuko
Wilkins
Japan

Chris and Yuko Wilkins are FMWM missionaries with a vision to encourage discipleship in the church and help involve laity in kingdom building. In 2021 both Chris and Yuko are training pastors and believers to multiply their faith. Train and Multiply is an obedience-based discipleship movement having some breakthroughs in Japan. In addition, they assist the ministry of the church in Machida – sharing the gospel, making disciples and strengthening the church through weekly English outreach classes, street ministry and teaching at a local seminary.

Birthdays: Chris – April 21
Yuko – November 5
Caleb – January 14
Corey – September 25

Anniversary: April 6

Pray for

- discipleship ministry efforts
- wisdom and discernment for leadership in the Japanese church
- a strategy to reach the youth of Japan
- humble spirits and wisdom to serve the Japanese church
- the Wilkins boys' education both now and in the future
