Paul Olver
Impact
Latin America -
U.S. Based Partner

Paul serves as president and board chair for Impact Latin America (ILA), a new non-profit organization mobilizing resources to equip Latin American leaders to multiply disciples, leaders and churches. The intent is to support the work the Latin America Area is doing in Community Church Planting and Pastoral Formation and to expand it throughout the continent. Paul's wife Delia Nüesch-Olver, officially retired from FMWM, serves as ILA's Ambassador at Large.

Birthdays: Delia – March 8
Paul – April 12

Anniversary: September 8

E-mail: dradelia@me.com

Pray for:

- the transformation of people and communities in Latin America – that God will spread His peace to people's hearts, homes and neighborhoods
- the multiplication of new groups of new believers in new communities – that we would see the third and fourth generation of new disciples, leaders and churches
- more lay leaders across Latin America to grasp the biblical vision of Community Church Planting and be equipped to find persons of peace, share the gospel with power and start new houses of peace
- that God would enable Impact Latin America to mobilize a community of people who will pray and give
