

Meet Your Free Methodist Missionaries

JR & Becky Crouse
Ecuador

The Crouse family lives in Quito, Ecuador. J.R. and Becky assist the Free Methodist Church in Ecuador through leadership development, agriculture and education. J.R. serves as the field coordinator for short-term missions (VISA) teams for the Latin America Area and mentors pastoral candidates. In addition, he currently serves as the interim coordinator for the mentoring component of ministerial formation for Latin America. He also works with the Ecuadorian churches in exploring creative ways to bless and impact their communities through agriculture. Becky is the coordinator for facilitator training for Latin America, oversees ministerial formation in Ecuador, and assists with curriculum development and revision. The Crouses formerly served in Haiti and Peru.

Birthdays: J.R. – January 7
Becky – April 20
Marissa – August 12
Alena – September 8

Anniversary: August 8

Pray for:

- J.R. and Becky to have parenting wisdom and properly balance ministry and home responsibilities
- God's care for aging parents in their absence
- them to be fruitful in building up church leaders
- the formation of supportive friendships and vibrant working relationships
- growth and impact of the Ecuadorian church in reaching Ecuador for Christ
