Ricardo &
Beth Gómez
Latin America

As area director for Latin America, Ricardo Gómez oversees national leaders and both U.S. and international missionaries in 19 countries. Ricardo and Beth share the vision to participate with God in the restoration of Latin America by developing healthy leaders, multiplying committed disciples and equipping transformational churches.

The Gomez family lives in Medellín, Colombia, where Beth leads the area's communication team. Before moving to Colombia, they served in Santiago, Chile, where they re-planted an urban church, Comunidad Cristiana Casa Grande, and worked in pastoral formation throughout the region.

Birthdays: Ricardo – April 8 Juliana – December 10
Beth – May 8 Jonathn – September 21

Anniversary: July 5

E-mail: gomezministry@gmail.com

Pray for:

- the development of healthy leaders, the multiplication of committed disciples and the equipping of transformational churches throughout Latin America
- discernment, wisdom and balance for Ricardo and Beth's effective ministry throughout Latin America
- restoration in every sense of the word as the area recovers from the lasting effects of the coronavirus pandemic
- the overall health of their family and plans for the future as Juliana completes her senior year of high school
