

Meet Your Free Methodist Missionaries

David & Ginegda
"Yeya" Lopez
Peru – International Missionaries

David and Ginegday "Yeya" López are international missionaries from Latin America to Lima, Peru. David is an ordained elder with a successful track record of multiplying house churches. The López family moved to Lima in January 2017 and started a Community Church Planting training center to multiply disciples, groups and leaders in this strategic city. In addition to mentoring leaders in Peru, David also mentors leaders in Paraguay and Ecuador. In 2021 he was assigned as the coordinator for Community Church Planting in the Free Methodist Church of Latin America and promotes church planting throughout the region.

Birthdays: David – January 13
Ginegda "Yeya" – August 28
David Alejandro – August 30
Valery – August 6

Anniversary: August 16

Pray for:

- God's help as they develop leaders throughout Latin America who support and promote Community Church Planting
- their children's physical and emotional health
- parenting through these times of difficulty and the pandemic
- the Lord to guide them in every area of life and give them strength for ministry and care of their family
- care for family members they are separated from while serving in Peru
