The Free Methodist Church in Belgium

Present Ministries

The FMC in Belgium is a recognized denomination by the Belgian government. Pastor Eleazar Habiyakare leads the Brussels congregation along with conference ministerial candidate Emmanuel Niyonsenga.

Eric and Amy Casteel are both elders from the East Michigan Conference living in Belgium. Amy is completing her Ph.D. in theology at KU Leuven. Eric is an affiliate missionary and serves as the regional director for Northern Europe. They have a passion for ministry to young people and among the diaspora churches.

Pray for:

- leadership development for existing churches
- identification of new leaders, particularly French and Dutch speaking
- facilities that could be effective meeting and ministry centers
- development of effective youth outreach and programs
- new church-planting opportunities
