Missionary*

Albert Delali serves as pastor of Crowngate Church in the Greater London area of the United Kingdom. As an international missionary, he is the Coordinator of the African European Church Network (AECN), a ministry initiative of FMWM Europe. This network was established to address the unique needs of families coming to Europe who discover a vastly different culture and viewpoint of the Church. Albert will work with gifted African leaders in some of the most secular locations in Europe. These churches and leaders of the African diaspora are grateful for a partnership and relationship with the Free Methodist Church because of their theological and missional values. There are plans to connect groups in Spain, Malta, Italy, Germany and the Netherlands. God has given FMWM Europe a great opportunity to minister to His scattered people across Europe who are looking for a home.
