The Free Methodist Church in Honduras

Origins

Free Methodist churches in Honduras are led by two conference ministerial candidates and a group of emerging lay leaders with a vision to plant more churches. The existing churches were started from three different Free Methodist connections in the U.S.: Salem, MA; Miami, FL; Rochester and Fredonia, NY. Brent and Alma Thompson, pastors of Harvest Chapel FMC, Fredonia, NY (Genesis Conference), supervise the work in Honduras.

Present Ministries

The Honduras Missionary District was officially established in 2019. Over the years, we have witnessed God's hand at work on our behalf. We are composed of four established churches and three church planting projects. Currently, we operate two training centers intentionally focused on developing healthy leadership. We support and work toward the multiplication of disciples, leaders, and churches. We serve our communities through three existing Raíces (Roots discipleship for children) soup kitchens, bringing the gospel to children, food distribution programs, and by supporting small entrepreneurs in developing skills and creating opportunities for families. We also actively serve our communities with our leadership abilities.

Pray for:

- dependence on the Holy Spirit
- interdependence and collaboration among leaders
- unwavering faith to stand firm amid adversity
- wisdom from the Lord to guide decision-making
- God to direct them to people and communities where He has prepared hearts to receive the gospel message and be guided in discipleship
- growth in number and depth of faith
- guidance and wisdom for the new mission district leader, Pastora Sarahi
