

Christmas Eve - CHRIST

WRAPPED!

The Vulnerable Savior for a Waiting World

Reader 1:

"The people walking in darkness have seen a great light." - Isaiah 9:2 NIV

Reader 2:

Tonight we light the candle of CHRIST.

The waiting is over. The promise has arrived.

The light has come — not just for us, but for every nation, every people, every heart.

Reader 1:

Jesus came wrapped in cloths, wrapped in humanity, wrapped in love.

He entered our world in vulnerability and humility, bringing good news of great joy for all people.

Reader 2:

Let us unwrap the Savior in our lives and share His light with the world.

May the Christ who came for all people be revealed through us.

Pray together.

Light of the World,

Thank You for coming into our darkness with Your radiant love.

Let Your light shine in every culture, every language, every land.

Empower Your Church to carry Your light boldly and joyfully.

May this candle remind us that the story of Christmas is for the whole world and that we are part of Your mission to share it.

Amen.

Light the last candle.
